Academic Policies

1. Attendance

Students are expected to attend at least 75% of scheduled classes in every course.

A student whose attendance in a course falls below 75% is barred from the final examination of that course unless a medical exemption is approved by the Dean of Students.

Absences for official university athletic competitions are excused and do not count toward the limit.

2. Grading, Late Work and Academic Probation

Late assignments lose 10% of the available marks for each calendar day they are late, for up to 5 days. Work submitted more than 5 days late receives a mark of zero.

A student whose cumulative GPA falls below 2.0 is placed on academic probation. A student on probation for two consecutive semesters is referred for a dismissal review.

Academic misconduct, including plagiarism, results in a zero for the assessment and a permanent record of misconduct.

3. Course Load and Withdrawal

A full-time course load is 12 to 18 credits per semester. Part-time students take fewer than 12 credits.

To take more than 18 credits in a semester (an overload), a student must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 AND written approval from their academic advisor. The maximum load is 21 credits.

Students may withdraw from a course up to the end of week 8 of the semester and receive a W grade, which does not affect GPA. Withdrawals after week 8 receive a WF grade, which counts as a failing grade.
